

A Celebration for Jane Renfrew

McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research

10th of November 2012

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Refreshments and coffee available from 10:00

10:30 Martin and Evi Welcome!

10:35-12:35 Session 1: Chair – Glynis Jones

- 10:35 Evi Margaritis
Beyond the domestic: plants in ritual contexts from Greece.
- 11:05 Oliver Rackham and Jennifer Moody
The ancient olives of Crete.
- 11:35 Rupert Housley
Venice before San Marco: origins of the city from wetland investigations in the lagoon.
- 12:05 Alexandra Livarda
Social geographies of imported plant offerings in the Roman world: an archaeobotanical perspective.

12:35 Lunch

2:00-3:30 Session 2: Chair - Peter Murphy

- 2:00 Frank Green
Salt, plant evidence and industry: Lymington, Hampshire.
- 2:30 Mick Monk
A possible tillage farming revolution in early historic Ireland at a time of social and climatic change.
- 3:00 Debby Banham
Bread of our forefathers: cereal foods in Anglo-Saxon England.

3:30 Break

4:00-5:30 Session 3: Chair - Evi Margaritis

- 4:00 Giedre Motuzaite-Matuzeviciute
The steppe corridor of European agriculture.
- 4:30 Martin Jones
The past and future of minor cereals.
- 5:00 Pamela Jane-Smith
Memories.

Drinks in the McDonald Institute 5:30

Dinner at Darwin College, Richard King Room 6.45 for 7:15

