

Announcing Two Opportunities for Funding in 2022

from the INSTAP Study Center for East Crete:

Harriet Boyd Hawes Fellowship

Richard Seager Fellowship

2022 HARRIET BOYD HAWES FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION GUIDELINES

The INSTAP Study Center for East Crete is pleased to announce the availability of one fellowship to be awarded on a competitive basis to an eligible candidate for work to be done at the Study Center in Pacheia Ammos, Crete during 2022. This fellowship aims at the investigation of the role of women or gender studies in Bronze Age Crete. It is intended to highlight spheres and aspects of ancient life that have not yet received sufficient attention in Aegean Bronze Age studies. The fellowship is intended for scholars in the field of the Aegean Bronze Age/Early Iron Age who have either completed their PhD Dissertations or who are working to complete their dissertations. The fellowship will be awarded in the amount of $3,000. Applications must be received by e-mail no later than April 1, 2022. the recipient of the fellowship will be announced by April 30, 2022. Please email elizabethshank@hotmail.com for the application.

In addition to the completed application form, proposals should include a curriculum vitae of the applicant, a page summarizing the title and intent of the project, an outline of the intended project, relevant bibliography, copies of appropriate permits, and two letters of support for the project by two colleagues. The fellowships are open to those holding a PhD in Archaeology, Anthropology, Art History, Ancient History, or Classics and PhD Doctoral Candidates who have passed their examinations and have letters of support from the head of their dissertation committee and another member of the committee. If you are a doctoral candidate, please also include an outline of your dissertation, and a copy of your dissertation proposal with a copy of your cv. The recipient must be prepared to present an overview of his or her work and findings in the KENTRO Newsletter and/or a public lecture at the INSTAP Study Center for East Crete. The research should be carried out on Crete, and the grant includes membership fees to the INSTAP Study Center. Desirable methods of inquiry include:

- o Ethnography/experimental archaeology
- o Exploration of written archives and collections from various periods
- o Library research
- o Examination of archaeological materials, including artifacts, bones, and other organic remains

This fellowship is intended to provide supplementary income for researchers or PhD candidates who are either exploring new fields of study or finishing extended research. The amount of the award is US $3,000, which can be applied to travel or living expenses, but should not be used as salary or for the purchase of equipment (e.g., cameras or computers). The primary aim of the funding is to stimulate new forms of research, which will broaden the scope of Minoan studies.

Consideration for the fellowships is open to all candidates meeting the stated requirements. Awards are made irrespective of race, gender, religion, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, and actual or perceived medical conditions. It is possible that in the absence of qualified candidates with appropriate projects, a fellowship will not be awarded.

2022 RICHARD SEAGER FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION GUIDELINES

The INSTAP Study Center for East Crete is pleased to announce the availability of one Doctoral fellowship to be awarded on a competitive basis to an eligible candidate for work to be done at the Study Center in Pacheia Ammos, Crete during the year that the fellowship is awarded. A minimum of four weeks should be spent working at the Center. The fellowship is intended for scholars in the field of the Aegean Bronze Age/Early Iron Age who are working to complete their PhD Dissertations. The fellowship will be awarded in the amount of $4,000. Applications must be received by e-mail no later than April 1, 2022. The recipient of the fellowship will be announced by April 30, 2022. Please email elizabethshank@hotmail.com for the application.

In addition to the completed application form, proposals should include a curriculum vitae of the applicant, a copy of their dissertation proposal, an outline of the dissertation, and two letters of support, one from the head of your dissertation committee, and another from an additional member of your committee. It is assumed that the applicant will have passed his or her doctoral examinations and have a dissertation proposal that has been approved by his or her department.

This fellowship is intended to provide supplementary income for PhD candidates who are finishing extended research. The amount of the award is US $4,000, which can be applied to travel or living expenses, but should not be used as salary or for the purchase of equipment (e.g., cameras or computers).

Consideration for the fellowships is open to all candidates meeting the stated requirements. Awards are made irrespective of race, gender, religion, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, and actual or perceived medical conditions. It is possible that in the absence of qualified candidates with appropriate projects, a fellowship will not be awarded.