

Resurrecting Ancient Rural Life and Landscapes The Case of East Attica

October 2–3

2026

University of Toronto

Sponsored by:

The University of Toronto Office
of the Vice President, International (OVPI), Arts & Science
Tri-Council Bridge Funding
Program, Archaeology Centre,
and Department of Classics

The University of Birmingham
International Engagement Fund
(BIEF)

Workshop Schedule

Friday October 2

Morning (Archaeology Centre, AP 140)

9:30: Introduction

9:45: The Significance of Rivers and Wetlands
for the Environment and Economy of Attica
(Nikolas Papadimitriou)

10:45: Coffee Break

11:15: The Archaeology of Porto Rafti: Results of the BEARS Survey (Sarah Murray)

Afternoon (Classics Department, LI 205)

2:00: Settlement Patterns and Productive
Land Use in the Mesogeia during the Historical Periods (Kerasia Douni & Elpida Skerlou)

3:00: Coffee Break

3:30: Keynote Lecture: Tracing Human
Activity in the Landscape of East Attica
(Eleni Andrikou)

Saturday October 3

Morning (Classics Department, LI 205)

9:30: Welcome

9:45: The ARTEMIS Archaeological Survey:
Results from Year One (Maeve McHugh)

10:45: Coffee Break

11:15: Palaeoenvironmental Research in
Attica (Michelle Farrell & Yorgos Iliopoulos)

Afternoon (Classics Department, LI 205)

2:00: Access to Heritage and Public Engagement Opportunities (Henry Chapman & Francesco Ripanti)

3:00: Coffee Break

3:30: Response (John Traill)

4:00: Concluding Discussion

This event is free and open to all.

Questions? contact:
sc.murray@utoronto.ca

